Auditors' Report

To the Executive Board of Huron University College

We have audited the statement of financial position of Huron University College (the "University") as at April 30, 2009 and the statements of operations, changes in net assets and cash flows for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform an audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation.

In our opinion, these financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the University as at April 30, 2009 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

1 Purpose of the organization

Huron University College (the “University”) is a university institution with undergraduate programs in Arts and Social Sciences, and graduate programs in Theology. The University is affiliated with the University of Western Ontario (“UWO”) and closely associated with the Anglican Church of Canada. The University is incorporated under the statutes of the Province of Ontario. The University is a not-for-profit organization under the Income Tax Act.

2 Summary of significant accounting policies

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the Canadian generally accepted accounting principles and include the following significant accounting policies.

Revenue recognition

The University follows the deferral method of accounting for contributions. Restricted contributions are recognized as revenue in the year in which the related expenses are incurred. Unrestricted contributions are recognized as revenue when received or receivable if the amount received can be reasonably estimated and collection is reasonably assured.

Capital assets

Capital assets are carried at cost. When an asset is sold or otherwise disposed of, the related cost and accumulated depreciation are removed from the respective accounts and any gain or loss on disposition is recognized in operations for the year.

The carrying amount of a capital asset not being depreciated because it is under construction or development is classified as work-in-progress. Depreciation expense is calculated upon completion of construction and allocation of the asset to its appropriate capital asset account.

Depreciation expense is calculated on all depreciable assets based on the following methods, utilizing estimated lives according to Canadian Association of University Business Officers guidelines for Canadian colleges and universities as follows:

Buildings	5% declining balance
Equipment and furniture	10 years straight line
Computer equipment	4 years straight line
Library books	5 years straight line
Food court	5% declining balance

Cash

Included in cash are balances in the amount of $600,936 (2008 - $649,693) that relate to deferred revenue, deferred capital contributions, and other unspent amounts included in current liabilities.

Deferred capital contributions

Effective May 1, 1997 contributions received for capital assets are deferred and amortized over the same term and on the same basis as the related capital assets. Contributions related to capital assets acquired prior to fiscal 1998 are not reasonably determined and therefore, the change in policy was applied prospectively.

Employee future benefits

The University provides a Retirement Gratuity Plan, which is a defined benefit plan. Benefits from the Gratuity Plan are provided only to participants who had benefits under the London Life and/or Standard Life Group or Group Annuity plan as of December 31, 1986, only if the participant invests his/her defined contribution account in accordance with plan provisions and meets all other conditions necessary for receiving such benefits. The service cost and accrued benefit obligation of the Gratuity Plan is actuarially determined by using a modified form of the projected unit credit actuarial cost method pro-rated on services. The employees of the University are also eligible to be members of the UWO Academic and Staff/Management Pension Plan, which is a defined contribution plan.

Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Financial instruments

On May 1, 2007, the University adopted CICA Section 3855, Financial Instruments – Recognition and Measurements. This standard establishes the recognition and measurement criteria for financial assets, liabilities and derivatives. All financial instruments are required to be measured at fair value on initial recognition of the instrument, except for certain related-party transactions.

Financial instruments

A financial instrument is any contract that gives rise to a financial asset of one entity and a financial liability or equity instrument of another entity. Financial instruments in the form of financial assets and financial liabilities are generally presented separately. Financial instruments are recognized as soon as the University becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the financial instrument. Upon initial recognition financial instruments are measured at fair value. The fair value of a financial instrument is the estimated amount that the University would receive or pay to terminate the instrument agreement at the reporting date. The following methods and assumptions were used to estimate the fair value of each type of financial instrument by reference to various market value data and other valuation techniques as appropriate.

Measurement in subsequent periods depends on whether the financial instrument has been classified as “held-for-trading”, “available-for-sale”, “held-to-maturity”, “loans and receivable” or “other financial liabilities” as defined by the standard.

Cash and short-term investments

Cash and short-term investments consist primarily of cash on hand and certificates of deposits with an original term of up to twelve months and are classified as held for trading. These instruments have been accounted for at fair value. Carrying values approximate fair values for these instruments due to their short-term maturity.

Loans and receivables

Loans and receivables are non-derivative financial assets that represent amounts due from others with fixed or determinable payments that are not quoted in an active market including accounts receivable and due from Huron University College Foundation. After initial recognition, loans and receivables are subsequently carried at amortized cost using the effective interest method less any impairment losses, if necessary. Gains and losses are recognized in the statement of operations when the loans and receivables are derecognized or impaired. Interest effects on the application of the effective interest method are also recognized in the statement of operations.

- The carrying value of accounts receivable and due from Huron University College Foundation approximates their fair values due to the short-term maturity of these financial instruments.

Other financial liabilities

Other financial liabilities are non-derivative financial liabilities with fixed payments or determinable payments that are not quoted in an active market including accounts payable and accrued liabilities, demand loans and long-term debt. After initial recognition, other financial liabilities are subsequently carried at amortized cost using the effective interest method. Gains and losses are recognized in the statement of operations when other financial liabilities are derecognized or impaired. Interest effects on the application of the effective interest method are also recognized in the statement of operations.

- The carrying value of accounts payable and accrued liabilities approximates their fair values due to the short-term maturity of these financial instruments.
- The carrying value of the demand loan in 2009 approximated its fair value given its variable interest rate and short-term maturity.
- Long term debt is recorded at amortized cost. The fair value of the long-term debt at year-end, based on an estimate of the University’s borrowing rate as at April 30, 2009 for debt with similar terms and maturity is $1,683,947 (2008 - $1,688,509).

Interest rate risk

The University's exposure to interest rate risk relates to its cash and short-term investments.

Credit risk

Management monitors its credit risk related to its accounts receivable balances which are primarily from student and government sources.

Foreign exchange risk

The University has no significant exposure to fluctuations in the value of foreign currencies.

3 Change in accounting policies in the current year

The University adopted the following recommendations of the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants ("CICA") Handbook:

Section 1535, Capital Disclosures. This Section requires the disclosure of any entity's objectives, policies and processes for the management of capital, information about what the entity regards as capital, whether the entity has complied with any capital requirements and the consequences of not complying with capital requirements. Note 18 to the financial statements contain the required disclosures.

4 Future changes in accounting policies

Section 4400, Financial Statement Presentation by Not-for-profit Organizations. This section has been amended to eliminate the requirement to treat net assets invested in capital assets as a separate component of net assets and instead, permit such an amount as a category of internally restricted net assets. The amended section requires that all revenues and expenses be presented on a gross basis when a not-for-profit organization is acting as a principal in transactions. Additionally, the amended section requires that the statement of cash flows be prepared in accordance with Section 1540, Cash Flow Statements. This section will be applicable to financial statements relating to fiscal years beginning on or after January 1, 2009.

Section 4460, Disclosure of Related Party Transactions by Not-for-profit Organizations. This section established disclosure standards for related party transactions in the financial statements of not-for-profit organizations. The section has been amended to be consistent with the disclosure requirements of Section 3840, Related Party Transactions. This section will be applicable to financial statement relating to fiscal years beginning on or after January 1, 2009.

Section 4470, Disclosure of Allocated Expenses by Not-for-profit Organizations. This new section establishes disclosure standards for non-for-profit organization that classifies its expenses by function and allocates its expenses to a number of functions to which the expenses relate. Organizations which allocate fundraising and general support expenses to other functions within the organization require disclosure of the policies for allocation of expenses, nature of the expenses being allocated and the basis on which the allocations have been made. Additionally, the amounts allocated and the functions to which they have been allocated must also be disclosed. This section will be applicable to financial statement relating to fiscal years beginning on or after January 1, 2009.

Section 1540, Cash Flow Statements. This standard requires the disclosure of information about the historical changes in cash and cash equivalents of an entity by means of a cash flow statement that classifies cash flows during the period arising from operating, investing and financing activities. The standard has been amended to require that interim and annual financial statements of not-for-profit organizations be prepared in accordance with the requirements of this section effective with fiscal years beginning on or after January 1, 2009.

The University is currently evaluating the impact of the adoption of these new or amended sections on the financial statements for the year ending April 30, 2010.

12 Transactions with Huron University College Foundation

The purpose of Huron University College Foundation ("the Foundation") is to administer money received for the benefit of the University. The Foundation was incorporated in Ontario on June 12, 1979 as a not-for-profit organization and is a registered charity under the Income Tax Act. The Foundation administers certain Trust and Endowment Funds on behalf of the University for the purposes of pooling investment funds to maximize return and minimize costs. The decision-making as to the use of the University Trust and Endowment income rests with the Executive Board of the University.

The Board of Directors of the Foundation approved the transfer to Huron University College of $1,066,777 (2008 - $990,359) for the year ended April 30, which can be detailed as follows:

	2009 $	2008 $
Huron University College Foundation
Trust and Endowment Fund	158,783	158,009
Foundation Fund	690,577	792,225
Foundation Superbuild	43,478	40,125
Capital contributions	173,939	-

15 Ontario Student Opportunity Trust Funds

The Ontario Student Opportunity Trust Funds ("OSOTF") program was established by the Government of Ontario during 1997 to encourage companies and individuals to contribute funds for Ontario's college and university students. Prior to March 31, 2000, all eligible donations made to the University were matched by the Province on a dollar for dollar basis as cash was received. The matching donations ceased as of March 31, 2000. The Huron University College Foundation allocates investment income to the fund based on its annual opening balance. Activity in this fund is included in the Huron University College Foundation.

The Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities no longer requires institutions to submit a separate audit report with respect to the OSOTF program, however, it requires that the year-end OSOTF Report must be included in the institution's financial statements. Therefore, these OSOTF schedules have been included with the University's financial statements.

18 Capital Management

The entity's objectives, when managing capital, are to safeguard the entity's ability to continue as a going concern in order to pursue the delivery of a variety of services. In the management of capital, the entity included the fund balances, as well as the cash and restricted cash. The entity manages the capital structure and makes adjustments to it in light of changes in economic conditions and the risk characteristics of the underlying assets. To maintain or adjust the capital structure, the entity may consider raising additional funds or reduce expenses. In order to facilitate the management of its capital requirements, the entity prepares annual and multi-year expenditure budgets that are updated as necessary depending on various factors, including fundraising campaigns and general governmental conditions. The annual and multi-year budgets are approved by the Board of Directors.

The entity has not changed its approach to capital management during the current year. The entity is not subject to any external capital restrictions. The entity expects that it will be necessary to receive funds from the government during the current fiscal year to meet its budgeted operations.
